designed by Katerina Zachariades

The Seville range is an interpretation of the traditional wing chair and club armchair with a contemporary look. Stylish and comfortable, the Seville chairs have a distinctive shape to the back and a long sweeping curve on the arms reminiscent of vintage furniture of the last century.

As with all Morgan ranges, a number of options are available. The low back and high back armchairs, the lounge chair without arms and the two seater high back sofa are aimed mainly at reception and lounge areas. The 755 chair is a compact version which will also work well in bedrooms.
